

Lesson 15: Share the possibilities

Essential Questions:

- ❖ Who do I want to be in the future?
- ❖ How do I decide what I will do with my life's profession?
- ❖ How can I make strengths last into the future?
- ❖ What will make me happy in the future?
- ❖ What do I have to give to the world?

Class Objectives:

- ❖ Connect interests and strengths to a variety of jobs and possibilities.
- ❖ Assess jobs for the kinds of skills, abilities and strengths that are called for in performing the role.
- ❖ Develop a list of careers into which to look more closely.
- ❖ Learn earning potential and job outlooks for various careers.

Materials:

- ❖ Computers with PowerPoint
- ❖ Projection capabilities
- ❖ Interesting Career Opportunities Notes for each student

Class Progression:

1. Students present orally on the five job choices they profiled. The teacher makes notes of students' performance on the Career Profile Presentation Evaluation Guides. Copies of presentations, Career Profiles, Broad Occupational Category Notes, Ability Explorer surveys, and Student Interest Inventories are added to students' Developing Strengths Portfolios.
2. On the Interesting Career Opportunities Notes students jot down information on a few jobs that they did not profile, but that look interesting.

Follow-Up Work:

Students are to write a paragraph reflecting on the jobs they made note of while other students presented. Specifically, they are to ponder whether or not these jobs could play to their strengths and more pragmatically evaluate their potential success with or interest in one or two of those jobs.

Name _____

Interesting Career Opportunities
Notes

Directions: Listen to your classmates' presentations of their career profiles. Make note of any careers that seem interesting.

Job	Education/ Degrees Needed	Salary Outlook	Nature of the Work	Working Conditions	Job Outlook	Related Occupations
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

Name _____

Date of class _____

Date due _____

Follow-Up Work

Grade 11
Lesson 15

Review of Today's Class:

- ❖ Presented your career profiles
- ❖ Listened to others' career profiles
- ❖ Made note of interesting careers that others presented on

Follow-Up Work:

- ❖ Write a paragraph reflecting on the jobs you made note of while other students presented. Specifically, ponder whether or not these jobs could play to your strengths, and consider your potential success with or interest in one or two of those jobs.

Preview of What's to Come:

- ❖ Comparing your career choices with your desired lifestyle

Important Notes: